3 3 8

Positioned in an elevated and peaceful pocket of Maclean, this rare offering combines a near-new brick residence, extensive shedding and large residential landholding with genuine future potential.

Set amongst quality homes and natural bushland, the property is well known locally as part of a kangaroo habitat, with regular visits from a resident mob - a unique and special feature that enhances the sense of space, tranquillity and connection to nature.

The existing three-bedroom home is modern, light-filled and move-in ready, offering immediate liveability or holding income while future development or subdivision options are
